

PRESS STATEMENT

6 March 2018

Professional Standards Authority removes accreditation

The Professional Standards Authority has removed accreditation from Treatments You Can Trust. Accreditation is removed when a register does not meet our Standards for Accredited Registers.

The Panel decision and appeal outcome is available here.

ENDS

Professional Standards Authority for Health and Social Care

Contact: Christine Braithwaite

Director Standards and Policy

Reception: 020 7389 8030

E: Christine.Braithwaite@professionalstandards.org.uk

Notes to the Editor

1. The Professional Standards Authority for Health and Social Care (previously known as the Council for Healthcare Regulatory Excellence) oversees nine statutory bodies that regulate health and social care professionals in the UK.
2. We assess their performance and report to Parliament. We also conduct audits and investigations and can appeal fitness to practise cases to the courts if we consider that sanctions are unduly lenient and it is in the public interest.
3. We also set standards for organisations holding voluntary registers for health and social care occupations and accredit those that meet them.
4. We share good practice and knowledge, conduct research and introduce new ideas to our sector. We monitor policy developments in the UK and internationally and provide advice on issues relating to professional standards in health and social care.
5. We do this to promote the health, safety and well-being of users of health and social care services and the public. We are an independent body, accountable to the UK Parliament.
6. Our values are at the heart of who we are and what we do. We are committed to being impartial, fair, accessible and consistent in the application of our values.
7. More information about our work and the approach we take is available at www.professionalstandards.org.uk